Then write an explanation of whether you think it is a good thing or not and explain your reasoning. Remember you must explain why you think that.	English – In role as Mrs Twit, design a new meal for your husband. Draw the meal and then write a list of disgusting ingredients needed for Mr Twit's awful dinner but give it a very appealing name.	English – Review your list of ingredients from yesterday. Write a set of instructions explaining how to make the revolting meal. Remember to use the correct punctuation, time adverbials and some disgusting adjectives to describe the ingredients as they are mixed together.	English – Read to page 25. Write a summary of what has happened so far. Remember a summary does not mean re-writing the story. You need to think about the key things that have happened. We have practiced this in class where you have been given a limited amount of time to talk about what has happened which has ensured that you have focused only on the key points. Do this verbally first if it helps you.	English – Read to page 32. Do you have any advice for Mr and Mrs Twit? Write down your advice. Think about: 1) What would be the best thing for them to do? 2) What could they do to end the silly games? 3) Will they ever truly be happy if they just keep trying to get each other back?
