Dear Diary,

Today has been completely abstract! I didn't sleep well last night so I know today would be a nightmare, the day of the dreaded violent arena! Later on, my parents came scurrying into my bedroom. Anxiously, I prayed to god but nothing worked. Sighing, I stormed out of my bedroom and I knew that this was going to be the worst day ever. I got ready by 7am and surprisingly Cupidina was there to pick me up. I wish Sextus could come but he was too young. Anyway, I made way to the arena and described it as hell!

Scowling, I marched in this place. I felt butterflies in my stomach. The second I saw this place it made my face pale, therefore, I even saw many slaves slaughtered. My body shook. I desperately wanted to go back home but Cupidina yelped me over and she took her seat FINE! I guess I will just sit at the back then! I covered my eyes but it didn't last long. The whole crowd started cheering out of nowhere. I jumped out of my seat and as a result, the fight began. GREAT! UGH!

As the gladiators marched in, I started worrying about Angus since I haven't seen him for ages. Suddenly, these pebbling gladiators started flinging their swords but I didn't care, nevertheless, I continued scowling. Finally, I found him and I almost burst into happy tears but I kept my feelings to myself. Crying, I let out a sigh of relief however it didn't last long.

It is to compare the cultures and beliefs of the Romans making links to their gods and goddesses.

Minerva goddess of wisdom

Jupiter King of gods

Ancestral Roman Gods and Goddesses

Diana goddesses of the moon

Venus goddess of love

Pluto god of underworld

the god of Love

Venus was the god of love and beauty. She was a very pretty woman and was similar to the Greek goddess Aphrodite. Her husband was the God of blacksmiths, Vulcan, however she liked Mars, goddess of war. The God Cupid turned out to be Venus's son and Vulcan was Jupiter's (God of all Gods) son. But the big question is why was Venus the Goddess of Love? Well she was the goddess of love because her name meant love. Venus is the planet of love that is why she is taken to be goddess of love. Venus also had a daughter called Dione. Venus father was Uranus, god of the sky and her mother was the ocean.

To explore the function of a switch and why they are needed.

A switch is something to control the lights or anything electrical.

We have switches on we can control the items we are using.

How does a switch work?

Switches are important because they help control things.

The function of a switch

If a switch is turned on then it allows the electricity to flow. Electricity is glowing though so the bulb will work.

If a switch is turned off then it does not allow the light to pass through the bulb. Electricity won't flow through so it won't work.

Fun Trick:

My switch was working. If the bulb turned on when the switch was on then it worked. How did you get it to work?

DAILY LIFE IN ANCIENT ROME!

Technology: Roman technology can still be seen in the cities of aqueducts and roads that are still in Rome today. Romans were great engineers.

You probably don't want to be a Roman already.

Baths and Hygiene: The Romans used to bathe in pots and laundry cleaners used it to wash clothes with it. And as for baths well you used to go to a public bath and men shaved themselves inside there.

Fun Fact: Did you know that people wiped their bottoms with a sponge? No toilet paper?

Children: Children used to play with hog dolls, bones and balls and if people were lucky they could go to school for a whole week. Our boys don't look like that! OVO Exactly!

Rome!: The plebeians/ordinary people had bread and porridge but not rice and wealthy patricians they had meat and always try to make the biggest feast.

Did you know that some men went to the toilet for a chat?

Do you still want to be a Roman?

Homes: People who were very rich could live in a private house. Poor people however lived in apartments called insulae and used fire to warm them.

That could catch fire! Well yes that's true.

A lovely piece of work Prabha.

A role model should be like the light at the end of a tunnel, guiding you when you are lost.

Prediction

I think that absorbent is fabric because I think it is very thick and it is hard to tear the fabric open because it has a lot of layers so it has to be tough.

Equipment

- Fabric
- Paper towel
- cardboard
- Plastic bottles
- plain paper
- newspaper
- 20 split pins
- pot
- 4 elastic bands

How We Will Make it a fair test

- We are going to change the material.
- We are going to keep the same size the:
- Elastic fat band
- Number of pins.
- The shape

our finding

The most absorbent material was fabric.
The least absorbent material was paper towel and tissue paper.

My prediction was correct. I recommend fabric because it has a lot of layers.
