

Get involved with our World Book Day activities this half term ready for the celebrations on Thursday 2nd March 2023.

Where in the world?

We would love to see all of the amazing places you have been able to read a book this half term. It might be sitting on trampoline, or perhaps in the park or even on a train journey. Get a grown up to snap a photo of you reading and email your name, where you are reading and the picture to:

childrensuniversity@rydersgreen.sandwell.sch.uk

9 Read Challenge

Over the half-term, can you read to an adult every day? If you can read EACH day that will be 9 reads in total. An adult needs to sign your reading diary every time you read. Certificates will be awarded to every child who completes the 9 read challenge. Good Luck!

Dress up for World Book Day

You are all invited to come to school in an outfit linked to your favourite character from a book on Thursday 2nd March for World Book Day. This year, why not have a go at making your own costume? There are some ideas below! Alternatively, why not wear your pyjamas to school like Wendy from Peter Pan.

Look out for the World Book Day voucher coming home on the 2nd March 2023
