

We would like you to find out about Remembrance day. Please bring in your homework by the first Wednesday after half term as some work will be used in our Friday assembly.

Your focus will be on reading. We have attached a poem to start inspiring your research.

You could create a symbol associated with Remembrance.

Remembrance day is on the 11th November.

You could write a poem including similes.

You could learn the song "Fields of poppies" from Youtube.

You could display your findings as a fact file.

You could visit the library.

You could create pieces of art work.

If you visit a remembrance service, use an imaginative way to record your experience.

You could design a new poppy for 2023.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow

Between the crosses, row on row,

That mark our place; and in the sky

The larks, still bravely singing, fly

Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago

We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,

Loved and were loved, and now we lie,

In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:

To you from failing hands we throw

The torch; be yours to hold it high.

If ye break faith with us who die

We shall not sleep, though poppies grow

In Flanders fields.
